

Curriculum Joanne Zimmerman

Joanne Zimmerman was born upstate New York in Buffalo. Her main ballet education was with Kathleen Crofton at the Niagara Frontier Ballet School.

After one year at the Ballet of Flanders in Antwerp, she continued her career with the Dutch National Ballet in Amsterdam. There she danced for twenty years, performing principal roles of the classical and neo-classical repertoire.

The last twenty-five years she was a teacher at the Dutch National Balletacademy, working with children of all ages.

She has been a guest teacher with various school around the world, among others as a permanent guest teacher at the National Ballet School of Canada.